

Jack Winn
32-3 Ontario St.
Stratford Ontario
N5A-3G8
jack@jackwinn.com

Studied at The Eastman School of Music, (Dean's list), University of Toronto. Received full scholarships at both institutions. Performance certificate from The Hamilton Philharmonic Institute.

At the age of 22 appointed Principal Bass of The Edmonton Symphony. Principal Bass of Orchestra London for 26 years. Assistant Professor of Music Performance at The University of Western Ontario from 1981 to 1997. Prof. J. Stokes may be contacted as a reference.

Performed with; The Toronto Symphony, National Ballet Orchestra; as principal in; Hamilton Philharmonic, Kitchener Symphony, Saskatoon Symphony, Kelowna Symphony, International Symphony, Stratford Symphony.

I have been invited to audition for; The Philadelphia Orchestra (twice, and invited to their principal audition), New York Philharmonic, Buffalo Philharmonic, (principal), and the Rochester Philharmonic (assistant principal). I have also done several Canadian auditions including principal bass for; Toronto Symphony, Ottawa Symphony, and The Winnipeg Symphony. My most recent audition was for principal of The Vancouver Symphony in 2009. This experience makes me a formidable teacher and performer.

My most recent position has been personnel manager and artistic administrator of The Stratford Symphony. Mr. J. D. Sterne may be contacted as a reference. I was also personnel manager at The Huron Country Playhouse in Grand Bend for about 10 years.

As well as a musician I am also an abstract painter and sculptor. My art is in many galleries and I have a sculpture in Grand Bend that was installed as a millennium project in 2000. I have won several awards in public galleries. My art may be viewed on my web site, jackwinn.com

